Comprehensive Bond Solutions for Every Industry

In today's complex business landscape, surety bonds are more than just a formality – they're a vital tool in winning contracts, meeting regulatory requirements, and delivering peace of mind to your clients and stakeholders.

Whether you're a developer, contractor, importer, or company director, we offer a wide range of tailored bond solutions to meet your needs across industries and sectors.

Our Range of Bonds Includes:

Performance Bonds

Guarantee that contractual obligations will be fulfilled. If the contractor fails to perform, the bond protects the client financially.

- Ideal for construction and infrastructure projects
- Builds trust with public and private sector clients

Advance Payment Bonds

Protects the client's advance payment if the contractor fails to deliver the agreed goods or services.

- Often required in public contracts or large projects
- Ensures funds are used as intended

Development Bonds

Required by local authorities to guarantee completion of infrastructure (e.g. roads, lighting) as part of a planning permission.

- Common in residential and commercial developments
- Ensures public infrastructure obligations are met

Decommissioning / Reinstatement Bonds

Ensure the proper restoration or removal of equipment, buildings, or sites once a project ends.

- Often required in energy, telecoms, or environmental projects
 - Protects landowners and authorities

EPA Approved Environmental Bonds

Mandatory for certain waste, recycling, or industrial sites. Guarantees environmental protection obligations under EPA licences.

- Must meet specific EPA financial and legal requirements
 - Essential for licence approval and renewals

Non-Resident Director Bonds

Required for Irish companies with no EEA-resident directors. Covers potential non-compliance with Companies Act obligations.

- Helps non-resident directors register Irish companies
 - Valid for 2 years and renewable

Restoration Bonds

Guarantee land restoration after quarrying, mining, or peat extraction.

- Required by planning authorities and regulators
 - Protects the environment and community

Revenue Customs & Excise Bonds

Required by Irish Revenue for importers, bonded warehouses, and customs agents to cover duty or tax liabilities.

- Ensures compliance with Revenue regulations
- Crucial for customs clearance and trading

Tax Warehouse Bonds

Cover liabilities related to alcohol, tobacco, and other excisable goods stored in bonded warehouses.

- Required under Revenue licensing conditions
- Protects state revenue and ensures compliance

What Information Is Needed for a Bond?

To process your bond application efficiently, we generally require:

- Company financials (audited accounts, management accounts)
- Details of the project or obligation
- Bond wording (as provided by the authority or client)
- Company background and experience
- Legal or regulatory approvals (where applicable)

Depending on the bond type, personal guarantees or security may be requested.

Whatever your bond requirement, our experienced team is ready to support you with professional, responsive service.
